Obituary.

Moses W. Horne, a pioneer of Cheboygan, died at his residence in this village Thursday night, Dec. 27th, after a short illness. He was an upright man. He leaves a wife and several children. His estate is worth several thousand dollars. He will be buried by the Masons.

Deceased was born at Wolfborough, New Hampshire, March 17, 1820. In 1845 he went to Mackinac Island from Chicago, where he had been at work for a short time. He was a cooper by trade, and followed that avocation for several years. In July, 1845, Mr. Horne and Jacob Sammons came to Cheboygan and cut the first pine tree ever cut on the river. The following year he worked here part of the season and made the first fish barrels made in the county. In the fall of 1846 he preempted fifty-four acres of land. December 17, 1846 he married Sarah T. Bunker, having returned to his native place, where the marriage occurred. Six children have been born to them, three of whom are still living. In 1847 Mr. and Mrs. Horne went to Mackinac, and 1850, they located at Cheboygan. At that time Mr. Horne built the house in which the family have since lived, and where he breathed his last. He was the second sheriff of the county, and was again elected to that office in 1864. He had also held the offices of Justice of the Peace, and marshal of the village.

J. W. Fitzgerald, editor and publisher of the Clinton and Shiawassee Union, has sent us his Christmas card. Success to you Fitz., and your sprightly paper. May you live long and prosper.

I will be in my office every Friday from 9 to 12 A. M., and from 2 to 5 P. M., during December, to receive taxes for the township of Benton.

THE NORTHERN TRIBUNE CORRESPONDENCE.

MENTOR.

We are able this week to report good sleighing, about ten inches of snow.

A. W. Eck of this township spent part of last week in Petoskey. Some say he went in the interest of the Wolverine and Petoskey R. R. survey.

Earnest Marquette is starting an extensive camp near Wolverine this township, for the purpose of cutting and delivering maple logs to McLaughlin's mill at Wolverine.

Mrs. Frank H. Hart who was reported seriously ill last week, we are glad to say is better.

Everybody in Cheboygan County is invited to a dancing party at Fred Webers on New Years Eve.

Mr. Menzo Briggs of this township and Mrs. Jennie Haines, of White Pigeon county, Ind., were married at Wolverine

Christmas night, Justice Malcom McPhee officiating.

We believe we will wait until next week to insert our New Years wedding notice, we know who it is just the same though, now.

The Sabbath school Christmas trees at Rondo and Wolverine were a grand success. Every thing passed off pleasantly, the entertainment preceding the distribution of presents were especially interesting at both places. SOLOMON.

ALLIS.

SHAW MICH. Dec., 22d, 1883.

A large petition went to the Post Office department at Washington last week, for a semi-weekly mail from Indian River to Rogers City, via: Shaw P. O. Oquemo P. O. and Bismark P. O. This will enable the Cheboyganites to attend to business in Allis and return the next day.

Charles Helmer and the Leadbetter boys had a combat on the roadside, which resulted in the formers coming off without a scratch and the latter being severely pounded with an ax handle. A Justice of peace and a Constable heard the cries of murder and rushed to the scene, but did not succeed in arresting, but carried the wounded to the nearest house. One of the boys had a frightful wound in the top of his head, the others badly bruised. We heard that a warrant has been issued for Helmer.

The Assessor of School district No. 2 of Allis, reports he has carefully examined the maps, dictionary &c., purchased by said district, and is well pleased with them, and regards them as indispensable to the proper advancement of the pupils.

There is great need of more room at the postoffice here to accommodate the traveling public. Shaw is contemplating the erection of an upright to his house, instead of the back kitchen and wood shed previously contemplated.

Six gentlemen came in on the stage last night, en route for Indian River. Among the number were Messrs. Wetmore, of New York, Clothier, of Detroit, and Kaufman, Supervisor of Presque Isle township.

Our Township Treasurer made settlement with the County Treasurer this week and returned with about $800. Our town is the newest in the county, yet is in the best financial condition and has the best schools and greatest length of good roads of any town in the county.

Our Supervisor returned yesterday from Rogers City, and reports that in lieu of appropriating a thousand dollars for roads as usual, the Board of Supervisors in view of the fact that the county sustains a loss each year of several hundred dollars from the lack of telegraphic communications with the outside world in the matter of conveying and adjourning from day to day, the Circuit Court with all the jurors in attendance, in daily anticipation of the arrival of his Honor, the Judge agreeable to previous appointment, and in the loss of the Signal Service station at Rogers City, and in other matters of vital importance to the public welfare of the citizens of Presque Isle county, did, on Tuesday last appropriate one thousand dollars for the construction of a telephonic line from Alpena to Rogers City.

The same to be paid for at the completion of said line, in receipt of the same amount of telephonic scrip to be used by said county officials for county purposes only. Said line is to be completed before or on the 1st of June next, and when completed to Rogers City it is expected to be continued by the government officials to the Life Saving stations, 16 miles north west of Rogers City, on Lake Huron. Then the citizens of Cheboygan, will doubtless continue the line to Cheboygan, probably through Allis, connecting with the telegraph line at Indian River.

We attended the Lime Kiln club "at Rogers City recently organized by a prominent gentleman from New York, and after enjoying the initiative rites of the same, as the table was being spread for an apparently bounteous feast, our next neighbor whispered to us that he thought the air of the room was freighted with the odor of rotten eggs. We employed the prominence on our faces quite vigorously for a few seconds in testing the qualities of the atmosphere, and were forcibly reminded of our first visit to White Sulphur Springs, in Virginia, but thinking perhaps it was only the exhilarating and ambrosial atmosphere arising from the recent ventilation of some ones freely perspiring feet and not wishing to appear uneasy at this sumptuous feast, we endeavored to quiet our unsettled, olfactory nerves and took a piece of rich looking cheese passed to us by the presiding host, but were surprised to find our heretofore voracious appetite rapidly leaving. Was the cheese made of burnt gunpowder, assafetida and rotten eggs mixed, I asked what kind of cheese I had the honor of eating, and was informed that it was the renowned Limburger cheese. I snatched my pocket handkerchief from an outside coat pocket and found it filled with Limburger cheese, I made a rush for the door and slipped upon a piece of Limburger cheese, after escaping to the fresh air and "heaving up Jonah" for half an hour, we sought our bed for repose, and on turning down the covers found several pieces of Limburger cheese. At last believing our room cleared of all that noxious food so much relished by some people we dropped to sleep only to dream of Limburger cheese. On awakening in the morning we raised the window to get fresh air and in looking around found more cheese in our boots, jackets and hat. We promise ourselves that we will accept no more invitations to dine with the Lime Kiln Club, and advise every body to try Limburger cheese, and if they like it eat it. We don't.

December 27, 1883.

The wreck of the schooner Mary A. Hulbert, a sad end to the best little vessel that ever floated on fresh water, and more sad still that she found a coffin for Captain Martin O'Malley, who commenced sailing on her as cook, a boy, twenty-six or seven years ago. I laid the keel of the Hulbert twenty-eight years ago this winter at Sandusky. Capt. Samuel Biddle made the model, but I brought the dimensions of hull and every detail of outfit from "salt water." She was built for the Mackinaw and North Shore fish trade, and as it was then carried on, proved just the thing. She was only 61 feet keel, 20 feet beam, and seven feet depth of hold, with 18 inches dead rise on $\frac{3}{4}$ flow; a mite of a vessel now, but when I arrived with her at Bush Point, on fourth of July, 1856, the Frenchmen exclaimed, "grosse barge," comparing her with vessels engaged in that trade at the time. Capt. N. W. Kirtland, now of Egg Harbor, Wis., sailed her until the war commenced, and he and the vessel were considered by many people who took passage with him, equal to any storm Lake Michigan could get up. The Hulbert was well built, and having been a long time in the salt fish trade, was well preserved. It does not appear that she ever had a thorough rebuild. Many persons around the straits of Mackinaw will remember with pleasure the Hulbert and her competent and always kind and obliging master.

Vorce & Embury are putting in a camp a short distance from here with George Cummings as foreman.

Miss Alice Richards of Connecticut is visiting her brother Phil.

The suit of Sponsler vs. Roney for burglary was postponed until next month. Each party will secure legal advice.

Thos. Shirley, of St. Ignace is visiting his sister, Mrs. Alex. Mitchell.

Our school closed Friday for Christmas vacation.

Mrs. Moses Pasino is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Jodway, of Cheboygan. The Wolverine people do a good deal of bragging, but all we need to make us equal with that immense city is a tude and a postoffice.

We have six inches or more of snow here, and every one, and especially the Knights of the Mackinaw Shirts are happy.

Several of our citizens are going to begin hauling timber to Indian River.
